Each full-time County employee who has successfully completed his or her probationary period will be eligible for three (3) floating holidays during 2022. The dates the floating holidays are taken are at the discretion of the department head or elected official. Floating holidays may not carry over to the next calendar year.

Some county offices are required to be open on December 31, 2021 as it is the last business day of the year. If an employee in one of these offices is scheduled to work on December 31, they will receive an additional floating holiday, in lieu of the scheduled paid holiday, to be used in 2022 at the discretion of the department head or elected official.
